

GETTIN' THE TREATMENT

BACHING it while wife Barbara Rush is locationing in Moab for Son of Cochise, Jeff Hunter joined Tab Hunter (no relation!) on week-end jaunt to Arrowhead Springs Hotel. Two boys drove down in Tab's "tomato souper," his tomato-colored Ford convertible.

BOYS shared suite with sitting room, bedroom with double beds, balcony that overlooked huge mountain with natural arrow formation (which gives Arrowhead its name). Tab's recently moved into own apartment, sez bathroom in suite is larger than his apartment!

UNPACKED and comfortably attired in bathing trunks, Jeff and Tab look over grounds from balcony. Hat Tab's wearing is Confederate cap—his favorite headpiece. With both Jeff and Barbara on the go, her mother looked after their son, took him to Wisconsin.

Baths, All Kinds Of Mineral Water!*

SIGN listing different minerals found at Arrowhead Springs fascinated the Hunter boys. Arrowhead boasts the hottest spring water of any springs in the world—the temperature is 202 degrees! Boys decided they'd try all of 'em!

"OH, my aching back!" cried Tab when Jeff walloped him in croquet game. Jeff had edge on his opponent: He's been practicing with his boss Darryl Zanuck, who's a real expert at the game!

FIRST taste of mineral water—the hard way! Career-wise, Tab's sailing along. He's just wound up Return to Treasure Island and has TV series lined up. He's also skating again, has new partner; two work out at San Bernardino rink.

REFRESHING dip in pool was next on boys' activity list. Upon Jeff's return to Hollywood, he re-packed bag, took off for Norfolk, Va., for opening of his 20th flicker Sailor of the King.

CHOW DOWN! The famished Hunters filled up on beef sandwiches, cottage cheese, pickles, olives, iced tea, topped off with ice-cream. Both have healthy appetites!

LOOKING not too happy about the whole thing, Jeff and Tab sweated out steam bath in naturally heated cave which is under the hotel. After the steaming, Physical Director Charles Scott Benson sprayed them with hot and cold water alternately, while the Hunter boys let out wild screams! Both enjoyed it, felt wonderful when it was over. Jeff's now thinking of returning for the ten day treatment which Mr. Benson is offering at $295. This includes room and meals—the whole works!

ON RECENT trek to Singapore to open new theatre, Jeff attended many badminton matches, sez the Chinese are terrific players. He and Tab are mediocre—but have fun!

NEVER a dull moment when these boys go into action! "Recreation is the best way to relax between pix," claims Jeff. He's now working in The Three Young Texans.

CHEERS! There are numerous fountains in lobby of hotel; each tap gives different type of spring water. Jeff and Tab went right down the line—tried each of 'em.

EVENINGS the boys settled down to card playing or watched television. Jeff also entertained Tab with a few piano ditties. Both felt extra healthy came time to leave!
